

Mrs. Martens Weekly News Letter

October 23-27, 2017

Hello Parents! We have had a fun and full week. The pumpkin patch was a highlight and held a lot of excitement for us! We have Parent Teacher Conferences coming up, and I have included individual appointment sheets in your student's folder.

Reminders:

Homework:

Memory verse- 2 Peter 3:18

Spelling- Our pretests are on Monday, and our regular spelling tests are on Thursday. Please remember to help your kids study so they can learn the words and do well on their tests. After the Christmas break, spelling lists will go home on Mondays, rather than Fridays. Please prepare your child for this if they struggle with changes, as will I. The pre-test is to check their knowledge before studying.

Spelling activities list – This is for students at home. This sheet is entitled “Spelling Homework Ideas” – please help your child choose three spelling activities throughout the week, initial next to the activity when completed, and send the sheet back with them on or before Thursday in preparation for their spelling test. I have only been receiving these back from a couple students.

Daily work- If a student is not finishing their daily work, then it will be sent home to be completed as homework, as well as a few worksheets here and there.

Blend it Books- Blend it books are now being sent home regularly for your child to read to you. This is a fun activity for them to share with their families and they're excited about having reading time with you. The books are short and don't take long to read, but they are great practice!

Thank you for your support in the matter of homework! Please help your child as needed, and make sure that all homework is returned the next day, unless otherwise indicated. If your family needs a little more time, then I will expect all homework returned to school by Friday, to be counted as credit for your student.

Character Parade:

Our CCS Character Parade will be Thursday, October 26th. The students will have the opportunity to dress up like a favorite character from a book. Mrs. Clover has hundreds of books in the library, just in case your child doesn't have their favorite r book. Masks, weapons and scary costumes will not be allowed.

Important Dates

October 26: Character Parade

November 1 & 2: Parent Teacher Conferences
