

Mrs. Martens Weekly Newsletter

October 30- November 3, 2017

Hello Parents! What an awesome week! Our Character Parade was so fun, and I love all the effort put in to the great costumes! We have Parent Teacher Conferences coming up on the 1st and 2nd. You should have received your individual appointment sheets in your student's folder. If there are any issues with the scheduling, or if your appointment will not work with your schedule, please email or visit with me and we will find something that will work for you.

Reminders:

Box Tops: We are collecting Box Tops, so don't forget to clip your Box Tops and send them in with your kids!

Homework:

Memory verse- 1 Thessalonians 5:18

Spelling- Our pretests are on Monday, and our regular spelling tests are on Thursday. Please remember to help your kids study so they can learn the words and do well on their tests. After the Christmas break, spelling lists and Newsletters will go home on Mondays, rather than Fridays. Please prepare your child for this if they struggle with changes, as will I. The pre-test is to check their knowledge before studying.

Spelling activities list – This is for students at home. This sheet is entitled “Spelling Homework Ideas” – please help your child choose three spelling activities throughout the week, initial next to the activity when completed, and send the sheet back with them on or before Thursday in preparation for their spelling test. I have only been receiving these back from a couple students.

Daily work- If a student is not finishing their daily work, then it will be sent home to be completed as homework, as well as a few worksheets here and there.

Blend it Books- Blend it books are now being sent home regularly for your child to read to you. This is a fun activity for them to share with their families and they're excited about having reading time with you. The books are short and don't take long to read, but they are great practice!

Thank you for your support in the matter of homework! Please help your child as needed, and make sure that all homework is returned the next day, unless otherwise indicated. If your family needs a little more time, then I will expect all homework returned to school by Friday, to be counted as credit for your student.

Important Dates

November 1 & 2: Parent Teacher Conferences

November 3: No School (EXCEL available)

November 7: PTF Craft Night
