Weekly Focus

Essential Question: How does the weather change in different months and seasons?
Sight Words: come me

We are still blending sounds that allow us to start reading beyond our sight words. To learn more about reading we will also focus on punctuation and sentence structure.

Our phonics sound for the week is a review of the short Aa.

Show-and-tell will now occur once a week on Thursdays. Your child can bring in any ONE item that fits in their backpack (please no live animals).

What we're Learning

We will begin our Christmas lessons as we move through the Bible.

We'll touch on each event leading up to the birth of our Savior.

Our math lessons are becoming more involved with the beginning of addition. We will also begin with our studies on money - starting with the penny.

Your Scholastic orders help our classroom get FREE books and supplies. Think about those Christmas presents now. Order online at www.scholastic.com using code RJ6V9 or return form and payment to class. Forms enclosed. DUE DEC 7TH for Christmas shipping.
